Night of Festivals Touring- Volunteering

Night of Festivals Touring

Night of Festivals Touring is a two day spectacular that will be launching in Nottingham on Friday 13th and Saturday 14th of September 2013.

The Festival will involve diverse live performances in the City Arts Dome, Sounds of Stories in the Storytelling Yurt, experimental world moving image in the ArtReach Nanoplex, Mandinga Carnival Interventions and Paraiso Samba throughout the day.

For more information go to www.nightoffestivals.com

What is involved?

We are looking for volunteers to:

- Steward the live performance venues
- Monitor crowd levels ensuring that the capacity in these areas is not exceeded
- Welcome Festival goers and keep them informed.

All volunteers must attend a compulsory briefing that will take place during the week before the Festival.

Who is it for?

All volunteers must be:

- Over the age of 18
- Able to attend the Festival for full onsite dates
- Friendly
- Approachable
- Comfortable speaking to members of the general public
- Able to maintain good humour throughout the day

We welcome people from all walks of life.

Volunteers will be required to work the minimum of a three hour shift over the Festival.

Why Steward?

By volunteering your time as a steward you are helping make Night of Festivals Touring happen. You will have the chance to meet other like-minded people from within the community gain new skills and events experience.

Expenses and refreshments will be provided.

If you wish to be involved or would like more details then please contact Beth Piggott on 0116 261 6882 or beth@artreach.biz
